

EU-CORD Member USP's (Unique Selling Points) - 2023

Introduction:

Red een Kind (Help a Child) is a Christian, international relief and development organization, founded in 1968 in the Netherlands. Help a Child provides a future for children in need, their family, and their entire community. By empowering vulnerable communities we help them to change their living conditions and opportunities in a sustainable way. Help a Child works in areas with a high incidence of poverty or in places where children and families are extra vulnerable due to disasters or (imminent) conflicts.

Main Objectives:

Increasing the wellbeing of children in the most vulnerable communities, both in stable and instable contexts. Working towards the self-reliance of the community.

Geographical Spread and Expertise in Programming:

We are active in India, Burundi, Rwanda, South Sudan, Somalia, Malawi, Uganda, Kenya and the DRC.

Our areas of expertise are early childhood development, child protection, food security and livelihoods, community empowerment and health, WASH & nutrition.

Budget figures:

Income in 2021: €14.621.720

Part of this is spend via the Dutch Relief Alliance (a group of Dutch humanitarian organizations)

Which donors do you receive most finance from?

Private donors in the Netherlands. (Dutch) foundations. The Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

What are the three main value adding areas where your NGO contributes to consortia?

- Expertise on early childhood development and child protection
- Experience with community development
- Always working in remote and rural areas

Previous and present significant consortia engagement with EU-CORD members.

We work together with other members of the Dutch Relief Alliance that are also EU-CORD members. For example in South Sudan with Dorcas and Tearfund NL, and also with Tearfund in the DRC. We also work together with Dorcas, ZOA and Woord en Daad in something called the 'Christelijk Noodhulpcluster'. When there is an acute humanitarian crisis, we raise funds together and help each other to implement projects.
