Join a European Network for impact

EU-CORD is looking for a dynamic and well-connected Network Coordinator to strengthen and grow our international network.

EU-CORD is a European network of Christian relief and development organisations committed to sustainable development and humanitarian response. Our 25–30 member organisations operate in over 80 countries worldwide, working alongside hundreds of local partners to address poverty, inequality, injustice, and humanitarian crises.

Together, we aim to enhance collaboration, increase our collective impact, and strengthen our voice in European policy and funding spaces.

Rooted in a shared Christian identity, we are driven by values of justice, compassion, and the dignity of all people, and we seek to contribute to a more just, equal and sustainable world.

Your role

As Network Coordinator, you are a strategic connector who builds trust, strengthens collaboration, and positions EU-CORD's identity and impact. You bring in new partnerships, ideas, and trends, and develop lean structures that support stronger advocacy and fundraising results.

You identify what unites members, translate this into opportunities for the network, and stay alert to developments in development cooperation and humanitarian aid.

You combine vision, entrepreneurial approach, independence, strong communication, and the ability to simplify complex issues.

You think strategically, connect disciplines, inspire others, and put relevant topics on the agenda. The EU-CORD Network Coordinator reports at a strategic level to the Administrative Council.

What will you do

In this role you will:

- Lead and facilitate inspiring EU-CORD leadership meetings that combine external insights, community building, and strategic dialogue.
- Identify and develop opportunities that increase the added value and impact of the network.

- Build and maintain relationships with external stakeholders, including European institutions and knowledge partners.
- Strengthen the positioning of EU-CORD, grounded in its Christian identity and values.
- Monitor relevant sector developments and translate these into opportunities for the network.
- Support and coordinate member-led working groups and foster collaboration across the network.
- Coordinates with the lobby and advocacy colleague and assists advocacy content through exchange with members.

Who you are

You are a natural networker and connector, able to bring together diverse stakeholders around shared goals. You thrive in a strategic role and are confident engaging at senior level. You are also able to:

- Build and coordinate strong networks and multi-stakeholder partnerships.
- Show sensitivity to context, culture, and organisational dynamics.
- Analyse complex situations and make sound judgements.
- Act entrepreneurially and identify opportunities for development.
- Embody and promote the Christian identity of the network.
- Lead with inspiration and brings others along.

Your profile

- Academic working and thinking level.
- Relevant international experience, preferably in the development or humanitarian sector.
- Strong network within (European) Christian FBOs/NGOs is a strong asset.
- Proven leadership and facilitation skills.
- Excellent command of English (written and spoken). French is an asset.

What we offer

- A unique opportunity to influence a European network and the EU with global impact.
- A flexible role (0.4 FTE), offered as employment or consultancy.
- The chance to work within a values-driven, international environment.
